Safety GUIDELINES

Wear Your Masks

You may have heard that there's a virus that's causing people to get sick. People may wear masks when they go to the store to protect themselves and others from getting sick. Remember that the people under those masks are the same people you see every day: your parents, teachers, and neighbors.

Wash Your Paws

Dollar Dog wants all of his friends to know the importance of washing your paws and hands today and every day! Remember to scrub for at least 20 seconds. Need to know how long 20 seconds is? Just sing the "Happy Birthday" song twice!

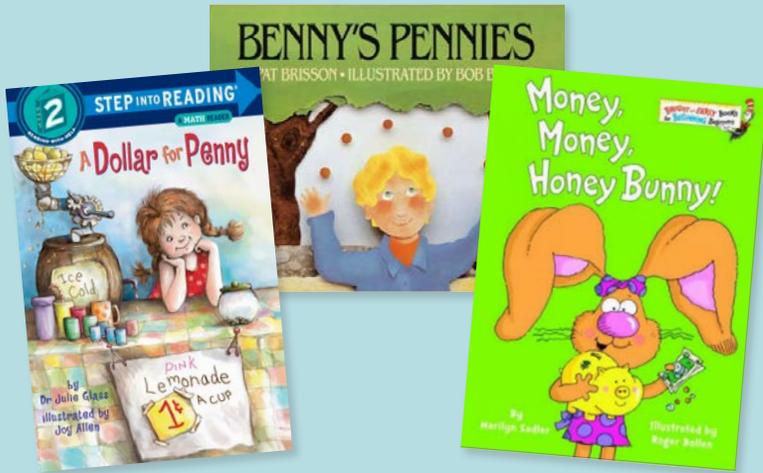

Social Distancing

You may have heard people talking about social distancing. What is social distancing? When you go out, you are encouraged to stay at least 6 feet away from other people. Some people could be sick and not even know it. Keeping proper distance from others that do not live in your house is a great way to make sure you keep yourself and others healthy!

Dollar Dog's Favorite Books!

I had some free time in my doghouse this year – so I did some reading, here are a few money related books that I think you would like.

A Dollar for Penny

by Julie Glass

On a beautiful summer day a young girl sets up a lemonade stand and sells enough cups of refreshment to add up to a dollar.

Benny's Pennies

by Pat Brisson

Benny sets off in the morning with five shiny new pennies to spend and eventually buys something for everyone.

Money, Money, Honey Bunny

by Marilyn Sadler

Money, Money, Honey Bunny has lots and lots of money. Some she saves, some she spends on herself, and some she spends on her friends. In this delightful rhyming book about spending and saving, the bear gets a chair, the fly gets some pie and, of course, the fox gets some socks.

FAVORITE VIDEOS

My friend Mrs. Welles at Empower helped me make some cool money-related videos! Here are reading videos you and your family can watch!
